VIEW ONLY Edited 06/29/08 - 11:24:48 By SULLIVAN, DEBORAH J. CALF IN DISTRESS [Narrative ID = 0883100016 INC0001001001] Added 06/29/08 - 10:54:48 By SULLIVAN, DEBORAH J. On May 29, 2009 I was on duty and involved with an inter-agency operation conducting surveillance. At approximately 1900 hours I received a telephone call from AL FAAS, a site steward for the Gold Butte region. FAAS informed me they [sic] had come across what they believed was a dying calf. A cow believed to be the mother was also there near the calf. The calf was located 4.4 miles down Mud Wash. FAAS told me he had photos of the calf. At approximately 1959 hours I was able to place a telephone call to CLIVEN BUNDY, the only rancher I could think of who might have cattle in the area. He was at home to take the call, and asked me questions to assist in narrowing down the area where the calf was located. From May 30 - June 01, I was still involved in the surveillance operation; however, on the afternoon of June 01, I was able to check the area where the calf was described as last seen. I did not find anything of note. LINDA FAAS, AL FAAS' wife, who was also there that day, forwarded the pictures they took to me via e-mail. Photo #3 was cropped by me from Photo #2. The photo shows the ear cut that identifies the cow as belonging to BUNDY.

DEAD CATTLE On July 09, 2008 I received a telephone call from my supervisor, U.S. Ranger Lisa Wilson. She informed me she had been advised there was a bunch of dead horses off of Gold Butte Rd., near a powerline road, on the opposite side of Gold Butte Rd. from some farms, uphill from an abandoned trailer. I investigated and found myself on public lands, up a wash directly across the road from the Bundy Ranch, at GPS coordinates N36 42'55.6" and W114 13'53.9". I observed at least eleven dead cattle, including one calf and one horse. The animals were in an advanced state of decomposition; however, of the cattle, only the calf had its ears intact. Two of the cattle had colored nylon rope still around their necks.

UNAUTHORIZED USE On July 31, 2008, I was on duty patrolling public lands, specifically the Area of Critical Environmental Concern known as Gold Butte. At approximately 1340 hours, while patrolling the Mud Wash area, I observed 11 cattle. This area is no longer permitted for grazing. There were 6 adults, 2 heifers and three calves. I recognized the brand on the left hindquarter and the ear marks as consistent with those used by CLIVEN BUNDY. I photographed the cattle. At approximately 1505 hours while traveling the opposite (returning) direction down Mud Wash, I again observed the same cattle. I again photographed the cattle. BLM employees Gayle Marrs-Smith, Susanne Rowe and another employee observed the cattle as well. Susanne Rowe also took photographs of the

NARRATIVE

On January 06, 2011, I received a telephone call from Ranger Stephen Santee of the Nevada Division of State Parks. He requested information on possible ownership of some cattle that had been located on the Valley of Fire State Park grounds. I advised him of the ear marks and brand used by CLIVEN BUNDY, and also advised him of another rancher in the area, DON WHITNEY.

On January 07, Ranger Santee called me again and described the ear marks he had seen on the cattle. I confirmed they sounded like they belonged to CLIVEN BUNDY. I gave Santee BUNDY's telephone number so he could arrange to remove the cattle.

NARRATIVE

I state that on January 22, 2011, while exercising my duties as a law enforcement officer in the State of Nevada, I was on patrol of public lands administered by the BLM. I observed a single wide trailer, a travel trailer and a pickup truck in a wash. This wash is almost directly across Gold Butte Road from the Cliven Bundy compound. There has been a travel trailer there, but it is overgrown and there is no occupancy.

On January 23, 2011, I returned to the area to investigate. I observed the single wide trailer hooked up to electricity, a trailer with a washer and drier loaded on it, a trampoline, numerous children's toys, and an ATV parked next to the trailer.

The pickup truck was bearing AZ registration ANP 9886. The registered owner is:
